

Medical Exemption Policy

An approved medical concession may reduce required attendance to 65%.

The student must submit a registered medical practitioner certificate, dates of incapacity, and medical board verification.

Approval is not automatic and must be recorded in writing.